Club News

Bill Goulet is working hard on Dictionaries

Bill reported today about the progress he is making on getting the dictionaries for all the kids in the 8th grade at Lincoln Grade School. Bill said we should have results by mid April. We all appreciate the effort you are making. It makes our Rotary club look good.

Looks like Angel will be going to Sea World

Today at our Rotary Club, Jon Halstead took up a collection to buy 4 Tickets to Sea World and give them to our friend Angel Anderson and his family. I talked to Angels mother and told her what we had planed. We will present the tickets to Angel at our next meeting. Thank You Rotary

Wes Whitemore Gives report on the Foundation

Wes told us about our Rotary club and that we have 8,000 points that we can use for matching up to $500 per member toward our Paul Harris contribution. This is a great deal for our Rotary Members and should not be passed up.

Jimmy Baker set the example for all to follow

It seems that we have a day for wearing of the green and who shows up and does a first class job but yours truly Jim Baker always or club hero.

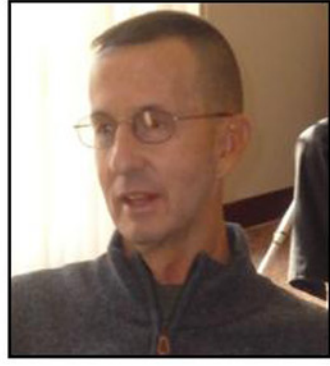

Our Future President set the example or did he?

Police Chief Adolfo Gonzales was caught not wearing his Rotary pin or Rotary Club badge. Darry White our Club President fined all members today that did not dress in green or wear their badges

Bob Jackson shows it all to prevent a fine

Bob Jackson was fined for not wearing green on St. Patrick's day, how ever as the meeting came to end and all the members were leaving , Bob remembered that he was wearing Marine green under wear and promptly displayed it, scaring our speaker half to death.

Guess Speaker does a fantastic job & looks good

Kristina Margole from the San Diego Blood Bank tells us about the how the Blood Bank functions and where they collect the most blood and what groups donate the most. She did a outstanding job and was a attractive addition to the club.
